

Richard Blenz Nature Conservancy, Inc. Buckner Cave and Surrounding Property

Mission & Purpose

To preserve and restore the land and cave on the Richard Blenz property to ensure that both novices and veteran cavers alike will have the opportunity to experience a caving adventure within the realms and safeguards of a nature conservancy.

Current Officers:

Anmar Mirza – President
Patti Cummings – Vice-President
Sam Frushour – Secretary
Richard Blenz – Treasurer

Three membership levels make joining easy!

Membership Level	Your Part	Your Benefits
Donor	$25/year	expedited access with only 72hrs prior notification with no voting privileges
Contributing	$25/year + 8 hours of volunteer work for the conservancy	expedited access with only 24hrs prior notification and restricted voting privileges
Full	$25/year + 24 hours of volunteer work for the conservancy	full, unrestricted access without prior notification and unrestricted voting privileges

Please send a check or money order to Sam Frushour, 513 W. Dixie St. Bloomington, IN 47403-4707

Nonmembers can still enjoy the wild caving adventures and scenic property by emailing the request line at least one week in advance at buckners-request-1@listserv.indiana.edu and by following the minimal impact techniques and ground rules as posted at the kiosk. For more complete information, go to our website <http://www.caves.org/grotto/big/rbnc/rbnc.htm>